

thursday

APRIL 12TH 2001

7.30 - 9.30 am	REGISTRATION
9.30 - 10.00 am	WELCOME / OPENING
	Chair - Ralph Fuecks - Heinrich Böll Foundation, Germany
	Karen Alexander - Green Institute, Australia	5 min.
	Cam Walker - Friends of the Earth, Australia	5 min.
	Brief introductions (delegates only - roundtable)	15 min.
10.00 - 11.00 am	PLENARY SESSION
	Analysis of developments since UNCED 1992 & conclusions for the 2002 Earth Summit. What could have been achieved? What went wrong and why?
	Chairs - Ursula Miller, Green Forum, Sweden and Ms Albena Simenova, Goldman Prize Recipient, Bulgaria
	Ricardo Navarro - Chairperson Friends of the Earth International, CESTA, El Salvador & Goldman Prize Recipient	20 min.
	Pekka Haavisto - President European Federation of Green Parties & Ex Environment Minister, Finland	20 min.
	Discussion	20 min.
11.00 - 11.30 am	Coffee break
11.30 - 13.00 pm	PLENARY SESSION 1 CONTINUED
	Chairs - Ms Szabina Kerényi, Green Democrats, Hungary & Mr Siosuia Po'oi Phiva, Human Rights and Democracy Movement, Tonga
	Wangari Maathai - Co-ordinator, Green Belt Movement, Kenya & Goldman Prize Recipient.	15 min. & 5 min. question time
	Anju Sharma - Centre for Science and Environment, India	15 min. & 5 min. questions
	Liang Congjie - Friends of Nature, China	15 min. & 5 min. question time
	Discussion	30 min.
13.00 - 14.30 pm	Lunch
14.30 - 15.30 pm	PLENARY SESSION 2
	How to bridge the gaps between the goal and reality? What is needed to steer globalisation towards sustainability? What do we want the Earth Summit 2002 to produce?
	Chair - Mr. Kim Kwang Sik, Korean Federation for Environmental Movement and Ms Matilda Banga, Sierra Leone
	Ralf Fuecks - Heinrich-Böll-Foundation, Germany	10 min. & 5 min. questions
	Nnimmo Bassey - Director, Friends of the Earth Nigeria & Chair, Oilwatch Africa	10 min. & 5 min. questions
	Victoria Tauli-Corpuz - TEBTEBBA (Indigenous Peoples' International Centre for Policy Research and Education)	10 min. & 5 min. questions
	Discussion	15 min.